Town Point Saturday Market Requests for information now being accepted

Norfolk, VA – (January 15, 2010) Norfolk Festevents is now accepting requests for information from local businesses, merchants, artists and other interested individuals and organizations for the new Town Point Saturday Market program.

Merchant stalls are available every Saturday from April 24th until October 30th. The Saturday Market will be located dockside adjacent to the TowneBank Fountain Park.

Norfolk Festevents is seeking an array of merchants to sell home grown, home baked, hand crafted and hand made products. Sales categories include hand-crafted jewelry and metal works, bakery products, flowers, seeds, herbs and plants, glassware, antiques, baskets and woven products, wood carvings, quilts, local authors, original artwork and photography, meats and poultry, seafood, green products, soaps, musical instruments, candy and sweets, hand-crafted pet supplies and food, pottery and ceramics, coffees and teas, organically grown or produced products, candles, original music, dairy products, local brewed or vented beverages, hand-crafted toys and dolls, hand-crafted furniture, and locally grown produce.

Town Point Saturday Markets will also offer opportunities to non-profit and community organizations to raise funds with bake sales, candy sales, bulb and plant sales. Organizations are also invited to raise awareness for their particular cause including pet adoptions, music outreach, garden clubs, church groups and general interest groups.

For more information, contact Domenick Fini, Sales and Operations Director at 757-441-2345 or finid@festevents.org.

Town Point Saturday Market

Join us as we celebrate “Community” with our neighbors by gathering original artisans in a pet friendly setting at Town Point Park.

Kids can play in the dancing fountain and families can enjoy breakfast and lunch at Omar’s Fountain Café. Cool off under market style umbrellas and bistro seating while you enjoy freshly made sandwiches and cold drinks.

Town Point Saturday Markets will offer a variety of artisans and merchants each week so be sure to make the Market part of your weekend routine. Boaters are welcome as we celebrate each week at TowneBank Fountain Park adjacent to the Waterside Marina.
